Welcome!

...to the 34th Far East Football Tournament!

Dear participants, dear friends,

On behalf of the German All Stars Bangkok, we once again warmly welcome you to this year's 34th edition of the Far East Football Tournament! After months of hard work to organize this event, we're very proud to host 46 football teams that will participate in this year's competitions.

The number of participating teams breaks all records by far. We're very happy to welcome new teams each year, but are particularly pleased to have teams join us every year as it proves to us that that the event is worth coming back. Next to teams from Thailand, the German All Stars greet friends from Singapore, China, Dubai, Malaysia, Cambodia, Taiwan, Vietnam, and many more (a total of 14 nations).

The tournament includes different game types (11-a-side and 7-a-side) as well as different age categories with separate competitions for players above 35 and 45. This year, we will have 12 teams fighting in the Open tournament, 24 in the Vets, and 10 in the Masters.

Hartwig Schüller, President of German All Stars Bangkok: "It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 34th edition of the International Football Tournament 2016 in Bangkok, Thailand. As every year, 2015 was a wonderful event and a major success for our beautiful game and we want to continue this success story for a very long time to come. The German All Stars Bangkok annual tournament, this year with 46 teams and players from around the globe, is without doubt one of the best amateur football events in Asia, if not the world. For 34 years many people give countless hours of their free time to organize this event and my cordial thanks going to all involved in the long history of this tournament. Now let us look forward and enjoy a weekend of football, fun and friendship.

Next to some high-quality amateur football, visitors can join free of charge and enjoy a full programme of entertainment, live music by the popular Big Boy Band and -most importantly- German culinary delights. With 2-day catering provided by local German restaurants, we can all look forward to German specialties and German beer throughout the event.

Last, but certainly not least, we want to thank all sponsors, voluntary helpers, as well as the referees who all help to realize this event in the first place. We wish the best of luck to all teams, look forward to see fair sports and wish you all a great time!

With sporty regards on behalf of the GAS BKK,
The Organisation Team

P.S.:

REVIEW: FAR EAST TOURNAMENT 2015

THE BAYON WANDERERS FC

The impressive twelfth century Angkorian "Bayon" Temple lends its name to this elegant team, which was established exactly 20 years ago. The strength of the Angkorian Empire is reflected in the depth of this team's character. The beauty and elegance of the temples is noticeable in the poise and grace with which they take to the field and is clearly seen in their flowing passes and general movement around the pitch.

However, if the team didn't get what it wanted, the horrific brutality of the ancient Khmer kings was clearly evident in their violent and erratic behavior on the pitch. This behavior has been wiped out in the last couple of years with the assistance of a real "Charter" and the real elegance and grace have been installed.

Bayon are led by their coach, good-old Billy "the Hat". If the Bayon players are in the mood, they will show his unique brand of total football, developed in his youth, around the time of Jayavarman VII. He intends to pass this on to all his players, who will try to write history in Bangkok.

Bayon Wanderers FC will participate this year only with one team, one for the Open Tournament. The Veterans and Masters will stay home this time.

This year Bayon Wanderers FC is coming only with pure technical players, dancing their way onto the field like ballet dancers with exception for their Ferrari and Abraham tank. The others are all highly respected trained and skillful players and will defend the Bayon colors with all the power they have.

Participating in the Bangkok Far East International Football Tournament is a huge honor for all Bayon players and they will try to perform on their best.

Like always, the expectations for a good result are very high and these players will try their best to reach the highest, to take the Cup home for the very first time. You never know how a cow will catch a rabbit!!

BIG BAMBOO SHANGHAI SHOOTERS FC (Casuals)

Big Bamboo Shanghai Shooters have been competing in China's top expat league - The Shanghai International Football League - since their creation in 1998, becoming the most successful club in the league's history.

Originally British, the team, much like the Premier League, has seen a big influx of foreign "talent" over the years since then; with France, Mexico, Chile, Spain, Holland, New Zealand, America, China and Italy all being represented in the current team. Despite this change in make up the Shooters have kept alive the two great British past times of taking the piss and getting pissed.

We came last year and while we managed a respectable third it wasn't the triumphant return we hoped for, having previously won it 11 years ago. This year we hope to come back a little stronger and take the trophy back to Shanghai.

We are hoping for some good games and we'll be pleased to be meeting some new teams. We have some tour veterans and some new recruits, all will be sure to take home a lot of memories, most they will want to keep and a few they will undoubtedly wish they could forget. We hope everyone involved has a fantastic time on and off the pitch! Big thanks to our sponsor Big Bamboo and of course the tournament organizers for making it all possible.

2016 CHIANG MAI FARANGUTANS FC

Fresh off an appearance in the finals of the 2015 edition, the mighty Farangutans FC are back with a vengeance and ready to take the 2016 German All-Stars Far Easter tournament by storm!

Fielding both an open team and an over-35 squad, this appearance marks a full lunar cycle of appearances by the Chiang Mai Farangutans, who quite appropriately made their first showing in the Year of the Monkey 12 years ago.

Could this be an auspicious occasion for the Farangutans to take home a trophy (#medals)? Or will our success be limited to our evening conquests on the streets of Soi Cowboy and Nana (#aspirin #antibiotics)?

Will this indeed be the Year of the Monkey? Come on you Farangutans! #COYF

FORBIDDEN CITY FC – China

Last year's trip to Bangkok resulted in Forbidden City FC returning to China and continuing their march to the league title. This year, we aren't going to let the fact we are already out of the title race stop us from returning to Bangkok for our 5th year in a row. Having changed our manager this season due to the previous incumbent consistently breaking the no girlfriends on tour policy, FCFC will be looking to make an impression in the final this year by actually playing in it, instead of streaking it. For anyone in Beijing and wanting to play football, you can find out more at our website (www.forbiddencityfc.com) or pop in to our sponsor's bar, Luga's and ask for Denis. He can usually be found in the corner table, trapping the latest bunch of impressionable young females.

This year's line-up:

Denis - Painfully slow on the pitch due to carrying more meat between his legs than the whole of Nana plaza put together, his quick wits keep him ahead of most of his teammates off the pitch. If only he was as potent in the box as he is on dating apps, we could have a real consistent goal scorer on our hands. As it is, we still keep bringing our big eye browed, pointy elbowed Manic to the party because he is occasionally in the right place for the ball to hit him and cross the line.

Mehmet - Last year the Turkish Heartthrob promised a BKK tour appearance, but instead decided to focus his efforts on producing a popular TV show. Since the first airing of the show, Mehmet Mahrez Gaddafi has accumulated no fame at all and hopes that by bringing his show on the road, he may gain some more followers.

Lee - When Leeeeeeee isn't busy pursuing his acting role in Men in Black movies, he can regularly be found crashing/losing his bike around Beijing or doing his best to insult as many people as humanly possible. With a long, hard, stiff, sore memory of previous visits to BKK, the Thailand regular will be buoyed by the fact he might last longer than 5 minutes this time around. And get a few minutes on the pitch too.

JD - The versatile Canadian will be hoping injuries stay to a minimum so that he can spend all his time standing around hungover in goal under a shit Canadian hat and praying little Dave doesn't head a ball.

PB - Experienced enforcer and all-round entertainer PB stands as one of the last remaining tour veterans. Regularly armed with a large flask and a shot glass to boot, a brutal and unforgiving Dutchman lies behind that most captivating of smiles. TVs, beware.

Mike Kost - From the depths of the German 3rd division to the heights of Forbidden City FC, the Incredible Kost, plying his trade in goal, defense and heading the ball and whatever else gets in his way, will no doubt make up the height lacking from little Dave and bravery from little Dave and heading ability from (insert Little Dave here)

Little Dave - Big, brave, brash, big, brawny, ballsy, big, beautiful, boisterous, big and bearded, everything he is not (see previous) he makes up for in commitment. The ever-present grade 1 student-cum-teacher never misses a match, training session or opportunity to shoot and miss.

Whitney - Loved up in Shenzhen with his wife-to-be, it's a rare treat to have WPB the 3rd alone away from the clutches and claws of his fiancée. Braced for the BKK heat with 2 replacement knees and plenty of val's to numb the pain.

Ed - Despite being away from Beijing for a while now, the spanky slug continues to make the annual trip and never disappoints. Although still in denial of the fact his Scottish ex would knock him down in the ring, Ed has kept himself in shape thanks to an Ivan-inspired diet of being jobless, getting drunk and generally not giving a fk about anything, at all.

Lupton - Having already used up every single line in the 500-page Lupton excuse bible, there was no other option than to take the BKK plunge again for the winter Whitewalker 3.0. Having just removed the green from last April, he's back again - whiter and flimsier than ever. Away from the home comforts of his living room, computer and basket of invoices; the shell is removed, wrist braces discarded, hair gel added and factor 80 applied. Three Point Oh! Three Point Oh!

Flexi - A flexible, friendly, ferocious and formidable football player, Flexi is professional personified. His wry German humour and robotic square head provide steal and shape in the City defense, making up for the awful jokes and miniature noggin of his defensive partner and captain. Not much gets past, through or into Flexi - let's see how he copes in Nana and Soi.

Freddy - What's to be said about Freddy that's he's not already said himself? Handsome, rich, talented, fast, clever, funny, and so on, and so on, and so onnnnnnnnnnn. Our very own Lawrence of Arabia, Sultan of Brunei's doppelganger and business partner, the Sheik of Beijing..... call him what you want, one thing's for sure, there's never a boring (or truthful) moment when Drop Dead Gorgeous Fred is around and with no doubt whatsoever - BKK will be the s(h)ame.

Mirko - Mirko "related-to-Claudio" Ranieri brings a touch of bearded-class to the City side. Unfortunately for Mirko (and everyone else) it's a WAG-free tour this year, meaning Mirko can't display his trophy piece on the sidelines. Fiery and hot-headed, despite being bald, the BKK heat will be out to test his temper - good job Mehmet will be by his side to keep him cool.

Matty Dunn - Cut him open and he'll bleed the colours of City. Currently residing in Thailand, the ex-City captain will make the short trip for the short man to BKK. Often touted as a poor man's Joey Barton, the BKK pitches will need to be adequately lubricated for his infamous slide tackles and Everton-style shots wide of goal.

Gas - Fully loaded with the gift of the ab, our favorite Frog will not doubt be scouting around looking for entertainment to keep 3.0 and co. occupied. Jetting around the world seems to be the new norm for the ex-Flirt-Floor dweller, and without a fellow countryman in sight in BKK, he'll have to make up for the lack of groping, sick, smell and nostril circumference left by Edu.

The Cup Holders!

The German All Stars Bangkok Football Club was founded in 1968 when Günter Glomb started his 17 years tenure as head coach of the Thai National team. Besides Mr Glomb's third place at the Asian Championships in 1972, his legacy in the form of the German All Stars remains until today.

The club was a founding member of the current Bangkok Casual's League and the Casuals team has established themselves as a regular in the top four of Division 1 after winning the Division 2 championship title in 2013. Despite the long history of the club, the German All Stars are anything but old fashioned. The team consists of all ages and nationalities. With an average of 60% German players, the club is particularly proud to welcome team mates of any age, having any skills, from any country, playing in any position. The majority of players are expatriates living and working (or studying) in Thailand with all sorts of different nationalities including players from Great Britain, Turkey, the Netherlands, Bavaria, Italy, Argentina, Spain, and - of course - Thailand!

The Casuals team are currently in fourth position in the Casual's League, which doesn't really reflect this season's ambitions. After a promising start expectations were high and rightly so. However, after losing some players to injury and relocation, circumstances changed.

This year's squad increased in numbers, which meant we took the decision to enter a mid-week league in Bangkok called the Chang League. The main objectives were to give players who weren't playing in the Casual League regularly a chance to play whilst still remaining competitive.

Besides the weekly trainings (Tuesday's and Thursday's), league and cup matches on weekends, the annual Far East Football Tournament is the absolute highlight for everyone. The whole team is looking forward to competing and enjoying an ice cold brewed beverage with all teams afterwards.

May the best team win!

SERVUS!!!

The German All Stars Singapore would like to thank their Brothers and Sister from the German-All Stars Bangkok for their invitation to this year's City-Of-Angel- Bierathlon. Our GAS Singapore Squad sees a record number of tourists joining and some of them even come to play football.

Let see who are the heroes, who will go for glory in the legendary 34th edition of this wonderful tournament.

Viel Spass, CASUALS GAS Singapore

OS DRINKOS Vietnam

" When players share the same vision, everything can happen.

Driven by Brazilian "Joga Bonito" spirit, ÓS DRINKOS took shape for the first time for the 2015 Phuket International Soccer 7s, with success on and outside the pitch...

Managed by Cedric "Dunga" Guillet & Zacharie Blondeau, former players for the Hanoi Roots & the Hanoi Drink team, and currently managing Olympique De Saigon in Vietnam, the winning team was composed by a group of friends from all around South East Asia. After the victory in Phuket last November, ÓS DRINKOS is now looking to grow an "11 a side" team, hoping to repeat its initial success by winning the Bangkok Far East tournament and create some great memories from their Bangkok by night expeditions!

The 7 a side initial team was starting flying goal keeper Ronan Lemoguen from Saigon, defended by a mixed back four with Antoine "Toto" Veribizier (Hanoi Roots) & Mathieu Mondejar (Kuala Lumpur), Zacharie Blondeau (Olympique Saigon) and Jeremie "Minot" Pessotto (Hanoi Drink Team).

In the midfield, Pierre-Emmanuel "PE" Mol (Bangkok) Olivier "Oliv" Toffoli (Hanoi DT) & Radouane "Radou" Foulmer (Hanoi Roots) were all over the place, showing some great passing skills and provided assists to the captain & striker, Cedric "Dunga" Guillet (OS). For this year's edition of the Far East Tournament, the team strengthen up in defense with Sinh (DT), Florian (OS) & Gislain (BK), and added some talent to his midfield by bringing Viet & Vagno for OS, Clement for DT, and some Killing instinct forward with Jo (OS) and Vivien (KL)!

Rumours are spreading about a mysterious talented Brazilian star player, Alex da Rochachoa, whom has yet confirmed his presence on the pitch. Story still to be written...."

"As every year, Saigon Hotshots are participating to this highly anticipated event. This time, we will bring up a mix of Saigon Hotshots old timers, a couple of friends from Bangkok and some of the U18 from Fox Football Academy (<http://foxfootballvietnam.com/>)".

Those kids will obviously be in Bangkok for different reasons than the rest of the team. The older team members are counting on them to represent the team properly on the pitch.

On the path to the Veteran tournament, we still have a couple of players shaping the team when they are not on the bench injured. Rumors say they are pretending to be injured and saving their energy for the tournament.

We are expecting the Hero to be back in Goal if he is done sulking. Everyone remember the save that brought the team in Final 3 years ago. Kevin Fox will lead his kids and will then behave when the sun sets. He is still insisting on having his #19 so our sport manager is expecting him to come back from his retirement and lead his kids on the pitch

Leo, our barbecue expert should have recovered from his Knee injury. As he said, "if it breaks for good, the insurance will cover the surgery". If Thai surgeon are as expert at fixing knee than at doing new boobs, we don't doubt he will come back even stronger.

As our social chair, we expect Jean to fulfil his role if he is not coming with his girlfriend. As wise as we know him, that may be a strategy to look after the kids and have the Fox out...

SAIGON REUNITED - Vietnam

Saigon Reunited are made of The Saigon Saints, old an current, and have been established in HCMC since 1995 and compete in the local SIFL league. The squad is hand-picked from the finest drinking establishments in Saigon and boasts a whole host of nationalities.

The Saints' are a football club first but also hold the social side of expat football very dear. We have been coming to Bangkok for many years and for almost as long as The Saints' have been established they have been touring and are currently regulars at the Phuket and Phnom Penh tournaments as well.

We are a sociable bunch that likes to think that we bring more to a tournament than just football and are looking forward to seeing everyone else involved.

We're here to enjoy the football, have fun (lots of!) and make The Phuket7s an annual trip for The Saints.

See you soon!

SWISS FC - Singapore

Here we go!

Swiss FC Singapore is happy to be back to Bangkok for about the 25th time or so...however, this year we have a major problem. Our domestic league campaign faltered early, hence management decided to put all focus on the Easter tournament. Training plans, game schedules, nutrition etc were all geared towards the Easter weekend. But unfortunately, the organizer shattered all these plans by scheduling the event one week AFTER Easter!

This means of course that our team will peak one week too early and therefore will not be a force to reckon with. But in the spirit of fairplay the team unanimously decided to go to Bangkok anyway.

We sincerely hope that this year's shifting of the date is a one off, so that our precise and well-structured planning is not disrupted again.

At the time of going to press the line-up was far from confirmed. We are working on some spectacular transfers to beef up the squad, possibly including a 15 year old wizard! But whoever will eventually don the Swiss shirt will give it their best shot to engrave our name for the 7th (yes, we won it six times if my records are correct) time on the silverware.

A big thank you to GAS Bangkok for hosting this event and we look forward to an enjoyable weekend on and off the pitch.

Cheers

Tuan Gemuk Athletic FC

REVIEW: FAR EAST TOURNAMENT 2015

The ANZA Lions soccer team of Singapore played its first match in November 2009. Formed by parents of children in the Australian and New Zealand Association International Junior Soccer League. It has now turned into a multi-national group aged mid twenty to late fifties, playing across two leagues: aturday veterans (over 35's) and midweek futsal.

Having completed our first overseas tournament as a team last year, it seems the pink slips for Bangkok are in short supply. Those that have or may have got away:

- Jack midfielder and occasional striker (do not suggest substitution)
- Alby rugby-esk defending, holding midfield and purveyor of vodka
- Luke Freddie flash – lightning fast (bring the moustache)
- Dave always in midfield, changed passport but not the accent
- Hardy striker and not the only Brazilian to be found down Sukhumvit
- Phelim the Mexican defender, bring on the Irish
- Charlie creative mid, just back from injury and still shopping for those scoring boots
- Alex mercurial midfielder - welcome to the tour
- Jon sub on wherever and enjoys a quiet night out with the team

B52 CARNEGIES FC Tapei - Taiwan

The more mature and distinguished offshoot of B52 Carnegies Team will once again travel around Asia for some footy and party. Slightly slower, slightly more rounded but definitely one year wiser, the team will hopefully be ready for the slightly longer format of two days of football.

The team has an internationally diverse team sheet with Mexico, Holland, Russia, Germany and other exotic locations represented.

Football at its finest bringing the world together like it should!

BIG BAMBOO SHANGHAI SHOOTERS FC (Vets)

The Big Bamboo Shanghai Shooters Football Club compete in China's top amateur expat league- the Shanghai International Football League (SIFL)- and since our formation in 1998 have become the most successful football team in the league's history with 8 SIFL Premier League titles and 10 SIFL Cups.

However, our the on field success of the noughties has not quite translated into success a decade later possibly due to our Paul McGrath-like post match diets at the sponsor pub, but it's always easier in China to simply blame the air and put it down to pollution.

We did manage to pip the Bangkok All Stars on penalties for the Shanghai Masters title in 2015 to break our duck of losing in 4 previous finals, however, in our 2nd year in Bangkok we are just hoping to make it further than our "youth" team in the Open and make it through the weekend of football without our bodies capitulating on us.

The team that will be entertaining you this weekend is a motley crew of expats from all over the globe from traditional footballing powerhouses like NZ and Mexico, to smaller nations like Germany and England and amongst our ranks there will be a handful of debutants who have been eagerly awaiting their step up to the big time.

We wish everyone a great weekend, many thanks to our sponsor the Big Bamboo for making this happen for us, and to the organizers and sponsors of the tournament.

The Bola Boleh Boys

We're a bunch of old french football players, coming from different horizons, living all in Kuala Lumpur, we won our kids school tournament twice in Kuala Lumpur and we fools think we can do as well anywhere.

We still have skills, but no speed and no stamina anymore....

Some of us almost died last year playing the open and decided to play in our age category...the veterans, we'll probably be very close to a heart attack again but hey...there's plenty of beer to fix our aging ego afterwards!!!

More space. More service. More than happy.

The new Premium
Economy Class: for those who want more

The Premium Economy Class is available on selected long-haul flights from December, 2014 and will be phased in gradually across the entire long-haul fleet by the end of 2015.

We know it's the little things in life that mean the most, which is why we've packed the new Premium Economy Class full of extras, including wider seats and additional legroom for up to 50% more space, double the baggage allowance and a free welcome drink when you board the plane. So all that remains is for you to sit back, relax and enjoy your flight even more.

DISCOVERY BAY FC - Hongkok

With the popularity of 7's football in Discovery Bay, residents Stefan Fuchs and Dirk Haddow formed a DB-based 7's team, The HK All Stars, in 2009 to enter overseas tours, specifically in Thailand, and since 2009, the team has won three Masters Cup tournaments in Phuket.

Over the years, many of the players involved in Discovery Bay football 7's and 11's friendly football have also played together in the Hong Kong Legal League under a team called "Studz United".

Now, with so many of the Legal League squad being residents of Discovery Bay, combined with DB based Vets Team, regular overseas tours with DB residents and the regular 7's football playing every evening at DB local pitch, it was felt the time was right to officially form Discovery Bay Football Club (DBFC).

The 2014/15 season saw the establishment of the Hong Kong Legends League in which DBFC was one of the founding members of the 9 teams league, eventually finishing 3rd. The 2014/15 season also saw DBFC crowned Legal League Division 1 Champions for the first time.

DBFC aims to promote adult football in Discovery Bay and position Discovery Bay as a competitive football community throughout Hong Kong and the region.

2016 CHIANG MAI FARANGUTANS FC

Fresh off an appearance in the finals of the 2015 edition, the mighty Farangutans FC are back with a vengeance and ready to take the 2016 German All-Stars Far Easter tournament by storm!

Fielding both an open team and an over-35 squad, this appearance marks a full lunar cycle of appearances by the Chiang Mai Farangutans, who quite appropriately made their first showing in the Year of the Monkey 12 years ago.

Could this be an auspicious occasion for the Farangutans to take home a trophy (#medals)? Or will our success be limited to our evening conquests on the streets of Soi Cowboy and Nana (#aspirin #antibiotics)?

Will this indeed be the Year of the Monkey? Come on you Farangutans! #COYF

FC FARANG VETS

FC Farang was established in 2009 over a classic roast dinner, so the myth goes! At the table were an Englishmen, Irishmen and a Scotsmen....Hang on just a minute!!

Anyway, since then the team has gone from strength to strength, winning the occasional tournament along the way while also picking up players and friends from across the globe. This will be FC Farang's 5th time here at the German All-stars Far East Tournament.

Twice in the 11's, and now 3 times in the Vet's. This is certainly one of the highlights of our season and a tournament we love to come to. Having been a previous runner-up, we are hoping we can but a decent run together and see how far we can go!! We would like to thank the German All-stars Bangkok in advance for hosting and organising what we are sure will be yet another successful tournament!

VETERAN'S LINEUP:

GK - DAVID - We asked if he wanted to play as we were in need of a keeper. He just starting speaking in Italian and we just took it as a yes! We're still not sure if he actually knows he's playing. We'll wait at the airport to see...!!

DF - SOREN - Known as Coach. This year we might actually see him grace the pitch for more than 10 minutes (But highly unlikely!). With the speed of a Sloth, reactions of a....Sloth, and as agile as a.....Sloth, there was only 1 position for him on the pitch. But Fabio has already taken the strikers role so he'll most likely be the keeper!

DF - CONOR - The oldest in the team. Our token Irishmen loves to get forward down the right flank. He has been heard saying that he is the closest thing we have to Brazilian 'CAFU' (we thing he means by age?!)

DF - PINK - Former Captain but now makes only cameo appearances for FCF! But keep in mind he does have to fly from Switzerland every time he does! So to that we salute him, raise a Jägerbomb and tip our hats! (Maybe not Jesper!)

DF - JESPER - The lanky hat man is back, no doubt donning a new style of hat to help keep the Bangkok heat at bay. To be honest it can't be any worse than the one he wore back in 2014! Shocking!!

DF - OLLIE - A true FCF Veteran squad member. Always reliable when the big tours come around. He is FCF's very own man of mystery. Not only a man of mystery in the night time, but to watch him play is a mystery too! With got him down as an Ollie but it might tell you his name is Stephen, Steven or even Bob?!

MD - MATT - An unknown quantity to me and the 1st of our tour virgins. Have heard good things, like he might bring a certain 'SPARK' to the team or even 'LIGHT' up the Midfield, but has a bit of a short 'FUZE'!! Either way somethings going to get 'BLOWN'!!

MD - MARK - Know as Puss within the team for his aggressive behaviour! He has been looking forward to the tournament for a while. He's quick on the pitch but when the final whistle goes you watch how quick he really is running towards the buffet area!!

MD - RUUD - The 2nd of our virgins on this veteran's tour. But somehow has the energy of a whipper snapper!! We will see what stamina he has come kick off!! Bangkok nightlife can be a cruel mistress!!

ST - DUNCAN - An old school English striker. Needs 10 chances to convert 1, but when he scores you know about it!! Good communicator as in if he needs fags or any other contraband you'll know about it!!!

ST - CAREY - The final member of the virgins. Along with Ruud he's been playing for FCF for some time but never managed to get to this tournament. Quick on the turn, good jump and great balance 4* sorry I just decided to take one of his reviews for kite surfing!!

ST - FABIO - The long haired striker will be making his 5th appearance here at the German All-stars tournament. He will be looking for different tactics throughout the tournament, whether that's Direct, Over the top or even grab and move, he just wants to get through the buffet queue without any injuries!!

FINEXSYS FC - Malaysia

This will be Finexsys FC's sixth consecutive year of participation in this great tournament. The experience of the past five years has made us wiser. We are now wise enough to know that the open category is too hard for our more mature players.

We are excited to return to Bangkok to participate in our favourite tournament, and play in the Veterans Over-35 7-a-side category for the third year in a row.

We hope to meet old friends and play in some competitive matches. And we are looking forward to making new acquaintances and arranging tours and friendly matches anywhere in South East Asia for the rest of 2016 and beyond.

So, I hope you will join us in the fun that is the German All Stars' Bangkok Far East Football Tournament – both on and off the field.

Just ask our coach. His tactical instructions are: "Go out there and enjoy your football!"

That is advice all our players take to heart, combining their holidays with their love of football.

Since 2003 the French Socceros aces are all over Asia and this 'France United' team is no exception with its members joining from France, Italia, Seoul, Japan, Singapore, and Bangkok...

The team is led by his emblematic Founder, President, Coach, and Captain Pierre Rico, whose engagement on and outside the pitch pushes others over their limits.

For this 34th GAS Far East tournament we are looking forward to share memorable moments with all of you for the sake of friendship. And we will make our best on the pitch where we advocate for fun, pleasure (whichever comes first) and performance (don't bet too much on these lads)...

The German All Stars Veterans take part in the monthly Vets Tournament held every first Sunday of the month in Bangkok. Despite being the oldest and maybe heaviest team in most of the tournaments, we always seem to have the most fun.

The team joins other tournaments in Bangkok and throughout Asia – the most recent being to Manila where we were crowned Champions twice (in November 2015 and February 2016).

Just like their younger team mates from the Casuals team, the Vets are particularly proud to have team members from all around the world.

The 2015/2016 season was not the most successful for our Vets as we were unable to participate in as many monthly tournaments as we would like. This was mainly due to player availability.

Many of the Casual's players will be eligible to play veterans football next season so expectations within the club are high. We hope we can be more competitive and celebrate more success.

The Far East Football Tournament is always a highlight in our calendar and the Vets look forward to meeting old and new friends during this weekend.

Besides playing football, the German All Stars Bangkok players, family members, friends, sponsors and supporters are engaged in many social activities e.g. the yearly Christmas Party, the annual Season End Trip and regular after match BBQ's.

If any player 35 years or older is still looking for a team to play here in Bangkok - let the Vets know - they will be happy if new team mates will join them.

"The German All Stars Singapore participating the 10th consecutive Far East tournament this year. In this years tournament we are represented in all competitions: Masters (merged with Hibs Singapore), Casuals (merged with Germans Dubai) and the Vets (no merger).

In order to be successful we have decided for the following squad:

Goal: Nick "The Stick" Wolhuis, Klaus "Katze" Black

Defense: Markus "Z" Zylajev, Jens "Nur der HSV" Taubken, Philip "Mitch" von Pein

Midfield: Joerg "Wolle" Kuehn, Thomas "Tommy" Berner, Sascha "Heussi" Heussler,

Forward: Marco "Richy" Richter, Frank "The Tank" Reitermann

Coach: Timo "Smicer" Schmidt

The GAS Management team is convinced that these alcoholics will bring light into the dark to play a more successful Far East tournament compared to our performances in previous years. The Stick and Katze will ensure that we not concede any goals within the two days of football. With our strong defense, Z as our "Dauerlaeufer", Mitch the Fighter and Jens who is unfortunately HSV supporter, we are sure that these guys support our goalies not to concede any goals over the weekend. Wolle, Tommy and Heussi are in charge to support the strikers with passes and deliveries in order to convert our unlimited chances.

We are trying to leave best impressions to our freshman striker Richy who is visiting the city of angels the 1st time - looking forward to your strikes on and off the pitch - see you next year again. But as we all know striking is your biggest issue and therefore we have The Tank to support you in this regards. Thanks for joining us also the 1st time at the 32nd Far East Tournament.

Not to forget to mention Coach Smicer who will ensure not only unforgettable speeches but also the beer supply after each match.

Thanks for organizing, as we all know, the best hobby football tournament in Asia.

GOLDEN GOALS FC - Brunei

Brunei's Golden Goals FC was established by a group of Ex Pats in the 1980's. The team plays 11 a side games every Tuesday against local sides, but enjoys its annual trip to Bangkok for some 7 a side action.

The GGFC squad currently consists of teachers, British military, commercial pilots, government workers, oil industry workers, and house husbands! The team has a real international feel and includes players from Brunei, Great Britain, New Zealand, Canada, Germany, South Africa and Ireland. It is well known that Brunei is a 'dry' country so expect to see the 'Boys from Brunei' quenching their thirst in the bars of Bangkok, in the hotel, in the street, at the side of the pitch, in the taxi, at the airport.....during the weekend.

HANOI DRINK TEAM - Vietnam

Being relatively successful on our “domestic” soil, grabbing last year our 7th Hanoi International Football League title, the Hanoi Drink Team rarely managed so far to export this consistency away from “home”.

Having reached several finals in different Asian tournaments in recent years, we often failed to climb the last step and eventually reach the Holly Grail!

We have no convincing explanation for this repetitive failure as our club “recipe” just seems to be the perfect one : rock the place all night long, drink a lot until dawn and avoid any kind of sleep before joining the battlefield, all as one, raging for glory and victory.

After a deep analysis, some football experts advised us that we might have been wrong in our belief and preparation during all these previous attempts. That’s why we have decided this year... that we won’t change anything to this club historical “policy”, fully convinced that one day it will pay off!

You have been warned, lead by our godfather and magician Pablo, strengthened by our faithful mates from Kuala Lumpur and Saigon, the “Hakusa” (Hanoi, Kuala, Saigon) Drinkers are coming with high expectations...

HIBERNIANS FC - Singapore

The Hibs are pleased to once again be involved in the German All Stars (almost) Easter weekend tournament. It nearly didn't happen due to a cock up on my part but many thanks to Jens for squeezing us in. Now the hard bit - getting everyone to the pitch on time.

We are hoping that we can avoid the usual problems with players locked up the night before they are due to fly, suspicious eye infections picked up on the Saturday evening and the usual cries of "I'm too hungover to play". We are also hoping that we can emulate the feats of the mighty Leicester City and defy the odds to challenge for some silverware. Unfortunately we don't have Claudio Ranieri to guide us, so Rod Strother will have to do if anyone can understand a word he is saying.

At time of writing this we have quite a small squad so have been desperately scouring our spiritual home of Muddy Murphys on Somerset Road for reinforcements. Considering the caliber of people who hang out there I'm not convinced we will get anything better than a fat Irish bloke to sit in the goals and drink a pint. Every little helps I guess.

Big shout out to Danny for flying in for another tour, Gill for not being arrested already (at time of writing) and Trevor for his wonderful 5* reviewed apartment on AirBnB which will be party central this weekend whilst he's away. With Raja, Tunners, Lorenzo and a few others all getting ready to come we are promising to put in a good performance in the bars at the very least.

The Hibs have gone from strength to strength in recent years, currently boasting 7 different 11 a side teams in various leagues around Singapore, as well as a midweek Futsal team. Possibly the biggest amateur football club in Singapore, and definitely the most social, it's our pleasure to come and try our luck in the 34th International Far East Tournament.

Up the Hibbees!"

HOLLANDSE FC - SINGAPORE/NETHERLANDS

The players of this team share a history that traces back to the time they were playing football in Singapore together. The heroic stories they tell each other about these days are in sharp contrast to the actual achievements: they certainly had an ability to confuse their opponents, but hardly ever did this result in a victory of any significance.

The enthusiasm and love for the game did however never suffer. In this edition of the Far East Football Tournament, the team aspires to take the total football concept from the 70s to a next level. Defenders will be midfielders, midfielders will be wingers, and forwarders will be sweepers.

Should at some point physical fitness come and stand in the way (which it will), the defence line will consist of Rogier Gasseling (1), Arjen Flierman (2), Ralph Hoekstra (3), Jan Renirie (4) and Patrick Pieket Weeserik (5). Midfielders are Remco Broekman (6), Jasper Neuteboom (7) and Arjan van der Merwe (8). Forwarders are Ard Huisman (9) and Frits Kool (10).

KAIZER'S CHIEFS - Germany

After 5 years swallowing our pride not winning the Title for the third time in a row 2010, Kaizer's Chiefs are back in the City of Angels to go for glory or/and beers again . . . Kaizer has relocated in the meantime, bringing the Major part of the Team from his new home Team TSV Scheer winning the famous, but more regional Späh-Cup 2015 after more than a decade again (Klaus Lehr, Stefan Irmeler, Andy Heim & Klaus König, mentally supported by towel boy Markus Stein, water Boy Jürgen Fulk and beer Boy Michael Stauss and our Cheerleaders Marion & Tanja Martha). From Kaizers old Club TSV Endingen Hans-Georg (Jörg) Reichert and Mario Richter are supporting the Team on and off the pitch and lucky us, we gonna get some help from Phuket again, as former Champion 2008 Andrew "Hurricane" Higginbotham and Champion 2009 Simon "Le Beau" Smith signed up and are keen on getting some more trophies under their belt.

No matter if we play an important part in this tourney or not, for the majority of the Team it's the first trip to Asia and we will travel to Siam Reap afterwards to visit the historic sites of Angkor Wat and bring some donations along for one youth Team of the Samdech Euv High School, which we Support since 2013 to give Kids the Chance to enjoy the Sport we Admire for decades in a proper Outfit.

The rest is socialising and therefore we're already in good Hands of the German All Stars in Bangkok !

Play fair and stay healthy is our Motto . . .

Malaysian Grasshoppers Kuala Lumpur - Vets

The Malaysian Grasshoppers were formed in 1993 predominantly for the German speaking community in Kuala Lumpur. The basis of the team was to play hard and even socialize harder.

Over the Years die MG's have become international in nature and have to welcomed many local Malaysians to play with them, but the hard-core is still German speaking.

The Name Grasshoppers emanates from the Swiss team Grasshoppers Zurich, and the MG's have tried in vain over the years to match their illustrious European counterparts for style and quality.

Nevertheless, win or lose the MG's have Premier league status when it comes to the 'third half' with many players shining more in the bar than in the box. The future looks bright for the Malaysian Grasshoppers. The Numbers players continues to increase, the standard of play improves with every Weissbeer consumed.

Until today, the MG's are group of friends who have the excuse of playing football every Saturday to have a beer after the game and laugh.

Introducing the 'MS Deutschland' Football team from Dubai..

We are a team of 11 Camel friends from the desert of Dubai. As many of our ancestors have their roots in Al-mania, we're called the 'MS Deutschland team Dubai'. Having played endless desert and Bangkok games on the big pitch in the years before, it'll be the premiere of our 'Camels' on the 7-a-side pitch this year.

Be aware guys: The Camels will be running, fighting, smelling, drinking ... !
Looking forward to see you other teams on the pitch & in the city !!!

Olympic Barbarians

This year, Olympic Master will come for the third time for the Vet(+35) tournament. We have near the same team as last year, and we are coming to keep the trophy!

All of us are competitors, so competition is the most important. The pleasure to be together, to play for each other is also the part of the result.

Each year, we are impatient to come to The German All Start, the motivation is over 100%. Our players are older than last year, but still motivated, and all of them are ready to “pousser le ballon”.

See you on the pitch....

Red Star KL - Malaysia

Red Star KL is a Malaysian football team, established in 2001 and made up of Scots, Malaysians, Iraqis, Nigerians, Americans, Indians, oh and English. We play in the WVFL social veteran league in Kuala Lumpur with our home pitch next to the world famous Batu Caves.

We were lucky enough to win the Bangkok tournament in 2013 but we are still not sure how we managed to do it, and have not got anywhere near winning since.

We are coming to the tournament hoping to play some good games, have pitch side massages and some good German beers in the cool temperatures of Thailand and of course, enjoying the quiet cultural night life of Bangkok.

SAIGON REUNITED - Vietnam

Saigon Reunited are made of The Saigon Saints, old an current, and have been established in HCMC since 1995 and compete in the local SIFL league. The squad is hand-picked from the finest drinking establishments in Saigon and boasts a whole host of nationalities.

The Saints' are a football club first but also hold the social side of expat football very dear. We have been coming to Bangkok for many years and for almost as long as The Saints' have been established they have been touring and are currently regulars at the Phuket and Phnom Penh tournaments as well.

We are a sociable bunch that likes to think that we bring more to a tournament than just football and are looking forward to seeing everyone else involved.

We're here to enjoy the football, have fun (lots of!) and make The Phuket7s an annual trip for The Saints.

See you soon!

SYK FC - Malaysia

SYK MALAYSIA FC is a team which was established by gathering among friends, who are love playing soccer. So far we are only played some casual local league in Malaysia and we also like to travel around the Malaysia to play friendly with the ex-state team. We also played some international friendly outside the Malaysia region. This is a great pleasure for us to participate in this extinguish event for the first time. We are looking forward to share memorable moments with all of you for the sake of friendship. And we will make our best on this tournament.

VOODOO FC – Shanghai

For nearly a decade the Voodoo F.C. of Shanghai have attempted to make a go at playing a proper brand of football. As the years have passed, and the job market outside of China wanes, it has begun to look more like a geriatric hospital than a football team. But, hey, it's all about the banter rather than football, no? Average age - 34.

In 2006, the Voodoo made a bold move, had a one night stand on Burgos street, and nine months later the Voodoo Child was born in the summer of 2007. Led by some of the finest men and footballers in China, the Voodoo Child captures the spirit of its fearless leaders - Ian Dixon and David Roberts. At 52 years young, Ian Dixon is an anomaly of the sporting world and this year's tournament will also serve as his stag weekend.

ADB FC - Philippines

It's the first time Asian Development Bank (ADB) FC will join a tournament outside the confines of its home, Manila, Philippines.

ADB FC boasts a roster with more nationalities than players, linking Asia with Europe...by way of North America. Such diversity is not a problem, though, as the players communicate effectively in obscure acronyms much of the time, as befits staff of their Manila-based employer. ADB FC features many long-time resident expats who play much of their football indoors. That said, joining the Master's category of an event that the well-established club eagerly anticipates each year, we aim to win as many games as we can, but have fun first and foremost. ADB FC will aim to bring an assertive and frenetic style of play to each match, placing a low priority on the possession game.

ANDAMAN SEA FC - Phuket

We have participated as Andaman Sea FC Phuket 2015 for the first time. Our team is very mixed. We have player from Germany, Switzerland, England, France, Dubai and Singapore. But we are no strangers....

- > 2008,2009 and 2010, we were already in Bangkok!

ROLAND FLUP

Keeper. Austrian Buffalo investor. He hates Germans. His favorite number is 5 which is also the number of goals he concedes a game. Favorite Fruit is apple.

Greg Watkins

Work shy, lazy executive. Passed on and delegated the running of the team after securing sponsorship. Bangkok homeboy, Leeds fan and wobbly right winger and occasional right back. Throws the occasional tantrum and sulks a bit too. He lives and sleeps with Danny Poole.

Trevor Allen

Scottish entrepreneur and rough house Centre back. Time at Dumbarton FC in the lower Scottish leagues served him in developing his love of on the pitch violence. Owns most of Bangkok catering establishments and has a long story about them all. Don't get trapped in a corner with the ball or a beer.

Jason Dinsdale

Cultured leftie and man about town. Spends his spare in the UK, either visiting the prison service and bailing his son. Probably the best drinker in the team and provides a perfect symmetry to his twin Greg on the other wing.

Terry Boulton

Hard as nails Gooner and bully, liable to spark off at a wrong look from a small guys. Unlikely to make day 2. Prone to a howling error in critical games so stay close and wait. Despite being 93 he's the fittest in the team

Shaun Mullen

Kit washer, Water boy, people chaser and most gullible twat to say "ill run the team". Goal hanger and team dreamboy

Steve Kerr

Glassback, struggling with an injury after being recently floored by a bus. A long serving jock a kin to a few drinks, man about town and keen on the wee lassies. Gets lost occasionally and can't remember his position or the game location even after playing the previous day. Unlikely to make day 1

Richard Bell

Brickie and hod carrier, very similar to Vinny Jones in style and ability, Our sponsor, guy we pretend to like as he funds our team, strip and tournaments. Odd sort of tackle. Spend a lot of time replacing his hips in hospital after too much gyrating.

Gareth Sparks

Another fragile Scotsman. competition, we normally target in with the occasional amazing goal. bothers him. Favorite fruit is Watermelon.

The right ankle is the place to go to remove Gareth from the this in the warm up. Nippy midfielder with a good engine and chips Poor passer and will give a few stupid goals away too, not that it

Simon Rock

Angry pub warbler, songwriter and guitarist. Still trying to make it after 30 years on the circuit. Great engine and random shouter. Takes about 2 hours to warm up to full pace before a game and usually knackered after 5 minutes. Married to the Thai Rocker Sek Loso

BRUNEI OLD BOYS

Brunei Old Boys (BOB) was formed on the 08.08.2008 with the main objective of enjoying the Beautiful game of football and socialising amongst our players as well as with the opposing teams.

We are a mixture of local players with a few of expatriate players sharing the common interest of playing our weekly football and the get-together of beer drinking sessions after each and every game.

BOB are always interested in playing the overseas football tournaments in order to improve ourselves in so many ways that are so much different from Brunei.

We hope that BOB will again enjoy Your Wonderful tournament this time around and certainly be able to continue to participate in many more tournaments in the future.

Have a Wonderful weekend. Cheers...

BRUNEI WANDERERS

Brunei Wanderers (Brunei Old Stars) were founded in the 1980's by expatriate working in Brunei. Today unfortunately, none of the founding members are with the team/group simply because they had left Brunei along time ago.

Footballing skills and talent has been the perquisite for joining Brunei Wanders and for some unknown reasons the players today are still "harnessing" that very skills and talent ???!!!!!!

Since inception in the 1980's the team has been participating in veteran soccer tournament in Brunei and also overseas including Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand.

For the record this is the first time Brunei Wanderers participating in this tournament, INTERNATIONAL FAR EAST TOURNAMENT, BANGKOK.

Malaysian Grasshoppers Kuala Lumpur - Masters

The Malaysian Grasshoppers were formed in 1993 predominantly for the German speaking community in Kuala Lumpur. The basis of the team was to play hard and even socialize harder.

Over the Years die MG's have become international in nature and have welcomed many local Malaysians to play with them, but the hard-core is still German speaking.

The Name Grasshoppers emanates from the Swiss team Grasshoppers Zurich, and the MG's have tried in vain over the years to match their illustrious European counterparts for style and quality.

Nevertheless, win or lose the MG's have Premier league status when it comes to the 'third half' with many players shining more in the bar than in the box. The future looks bright for the Malaysian Grasshoppers. The Numbers players continues to increase, the standard of play improves with every Weissbeer consumed.

Until today, the MG's are group of friends who have the excuse of playing football every Saturday to have a beer after the game and laugh.

WA MAJESTICS - Australia

Our team from Perth, Western Australia, of over 45's lads (mostly over 50's and over 55's actually) are really looking forward to our first participation in the Far East Football Tournament.

Having previously played in the Bangkok 7's over the years we know what to expect weather wise but we are very excited about our first venture into this new tournament.

We do bring with us a lot of experience with guys who have gathered many many years in positions such as cabinet makers, photocopy technicians, developers, semi retirees, entrepreneurs, brokers, factory shut down contractors, document destroyers and even a vet and much, much more.

We think that the above experience can only stand us in good stead and we look forward to testing ourselves out against other such credentialed opposition.

Whatever the outcome we all know that our lads will give each game their all and they will also welcome all of our esteemed opponents in any bars that we may come across them in.

We wish everyone the best and a safe injury free tournament and weekend at the 34th Far East Football Tournament.

Rules of Competition 2016

In general, all FIFA rules apply to this Tournament (except of corruption). Major exceptions and clarifications are described below. In line with officially practiced FIFA rules, the Referee's decisions are final. No one shall dispute his decisions in any way, on or off the field during the tournament.

- In accordance with Article 3 of the FIFA Statutes: Discrimination of any kind against a country, private person or group of people on account of race, skin colour, ethnic, national or social origin, gender, language, religion, political opinion or any other opinion, wealth, birth or any other status, sexual orientation or any other reason is strictly prohibited and punishable by suspension or expulsion.
- There will only be one referee during each match (no linesmen).
- The 34th International Far East Football Tournament will have a "no-age-limit", "11-a-side", "11-a-half", "full-field", "no-offside", "rolling-subs", and "yellow-card-sitout-the-half" format in the OPEN Competition and a "over 35-age-limit", "7-a-side", "7-a-half", "half-field", "no-offside", "rolling-subs", and "yellow-card-sit-out-the-half" format in the VETS and MASTERS competitions.
- Players shall be allowed to play for more than one (1) team in the entire tournament, only if the Captains of the two (2) relevant teams and the player who is switching teams agree to it.
- According to FIFA rules, shin-guards are mandatory equipment.
- In the Group Phase, each team shall be awarded with three (3) points for a win, one (1) point for a draw, and zero (0) point for a loss.
- In addition, one (1) - and, only one (1) - extra bonus point shall be rewarded to the winning team that can score three (3) or more goals in one (1) match. This means a maximum of four (4) points per match for any winning team.
- All matches shall be played according to the tournament schedule as announced by the organizers during captain's meeting. Any team arriving more than five (5) minutes late after the scheduled kick-off time, their match shall be considered as forfeiting the match with 0-2 walk-over. The punctual team shall be awarded with two (2) goals and three (3) points. If both teams are late (usually Sunday early morning matches!), they shall both be penalized with a 2-0 loss.
- A team must have a minimum of eight (8) Players (5 for Vets and Masters) at the start of each of their matches; otherwise the team shall be considered as forfeiting the match with a 0-2 walk-over. The opponent team shall be awarded with two (2) goals and three (3) points accordingly.
- Unlimited rolling substitutions ("rolling-subs") are allowed, and players who are substituted are permitted to return to play at a later time within the same match or later matches.
- Substitutions shall be made as the two (2) playing teams see it fit without stopping the match. Since it is rolling-subs, the on-coming substitute shall exchange places with the outgoing player at the same spot on the same sideline.
- In the interest of fairness and controlling rough tackles & late hits, any player receiving a yellow card during either half of a match will be sent off, without being substituted, until the end of that half during that match ("yellow-card-sit-out-the-half"), leaving his team one (1) player less for the remaining minutes of that half. The yellow-carded Player shall be permitted to return to the same match in the 2nd half or play in his team's next match. A Player with two (2) yellow-cards collected in one (1) match shall automatically be sent off, and is suspended for the next match.
- A direct red card shall also lead to an immediate send-off from the match as well as an automatic penalty of one (1) match suspension, with the possibility of further disciplinary action by the Organizing Committee.
- The following four (4) criteria shall apply so as to decide the group rankings: [1] Goal difference, [2] Goals scored, [3] the score of the match between the deadlocked teams, [4] Sudden-death-penalty-shoot-out. The winning teams in all competitions shall continue on playing through their Quarter Finals, the Semi Finals and the Final.
- In case the teams draw at the end of the regulation time for the matches there shall be a penalty shoot-out immediately, without playing any extra time, following the match to decide the winner of the match.
- The following rules shall be observed for all the penalty shoot-outs in this Tournament:
 - > Before the shoot-out, each team shall select their initial three (3) penalty-taking Players from the players on the field, and register their names & numbers with the Referee.
 - > In case it is still a draw after the initial three (3) of each team, the winner shall be decided based on the sudden-death penalty shoot-out rule. In case it is still a draw after all the Players in either of the team's roster have taken penalties, then the turn rotates and re-starts from the first (1st) Player in the initial three (3) penalty takers based on the sequence of Players and their shirt numbers as recorded by the Referee.
 - > The goalkeepers of the teams during the penalty shoot-outs can be chosen from any Player within the entire roster of their squad; however, (barring a serious injury situation) teams shall not change goalkeepers during the middle of a particular penalty shoot-out.
- The winner of the Final Matches (whether in regulation time or after a possible penalty shoot-out) in all of the competitions shall be declared as the champions of their respective competitions; whilst, of course, the winner of the Cup Competition being the Tournament Champion.
- Any event not covered above shall be discussed and decided by the Organizing Committee of German All Stars Bangkok during the 2-day Tournament in consultation with the Referees Committee. Inevitably, but authoritatively, their decisions are final!
- In the Vets and Masters competitions no sliding tackles close to an opponent. Goalkeepers can slide in a fair way inside the penalty box, outside the box the same rule applies for him as for a field player.
- Medical treatment on sight will be offered from Bangkok Hospital free of charge; however any further treatment and services outside the tournament's compound will be subjected to the normal fees and charges.
- Sunday after the 1st game of the second round started the schedule is fixed. Teams need to check their positions and schedules to eventually claim mistakes before the 1st game of the second round on Sunday start.
